Home Care Assistance of Ft. Lauderdale Promotes Award-Winning Healthy Longevity Book Series

(Fort Lauderdale, FL – March 21, 2017) Home Care Assistance of Ft. Lauderdale, the area's leading agency for in-home senior care, is proud to promote a series of healthy, longevity books. The eight book series includes: Happy to 102, The Handbook of Live-in Care, From Hospital to Home Care, The Five Senses, Mind Over Gray Matter, The Senior Sleep Solution, Cognitive Therapeutics Method™, and The Brain Boost.

Home Care Assistance is the only senior care company with an award-winning book series designed to educate families and senior care professionals on topics related to healthy aging in an informative, fun, and accessible way.

"I'm proud to be part of an organization that is on the cutting-edge of senior care education and research," said Manpreet Singh Dhalla, Owner/President of Home Care Assistance of Ft. Lauderdale. "Our goal at Home Care Assistance is not only to provide the highest quality care for our clients, but to also be a resource and solution provider with regards to the aging process."

For example, The Brain Boost is grounded in research from the fields of cognitive science, neuropsychology, and medicine to show the potential to boost brain performance through various lifestyle behaviors. This book is the latest in Home Care Assistance's award-winning Healthy Longevity Book Series, designed to address the challenges facing our aging population. Book topics include scientifically-based lifestyle choices to promote healthy longevity, best practices for providing quality care for an aging loved one in the home, hospital discharge and post-hospitalization care at home, understanding how the five senses evolve as we age, best practices in dementia care, and well-researched tools to identify and remedy potential sleep disturbances.
