St. Louis Senior Care Company Receives 2014 Best of Home Care® Provider of Choice and Employer of Choice Awards

Home Care Assistance of St. Louis is recognized for the second consecutive year as one of the top home care agencies in the country based on client and employee satisfaction

(St. Louis, MO – February 24, 2014) Home Care Assistance of St. Louis, a leading provider of in-home care for seniors, is honored to be recognized as a 2014 Best of Home Care Provider of Choice and a Home Care Employer of Choice. These prestigious awards are given to home care providers who rank in the top 50th percentile in one or more client and employee satisfaction categories, based on monthly satisfaction interviews conducted by Home Care Pulse.

“The Best of Home Care Awards recognize the leading home care businesses, the best of the best!” says Home Care Pulse Founder and CEO Aaron Marcum. “We are excited to announce these award-winners and celebrate their dedication to providing quality in-home care.”

Home Care Pulse created the award to identify those agencies in the in-home care space that demonstrate a passion for client and employee satisfaction and thereby help families make better care decisions for their aging loved ones. Companies are evaluated based on agency training, communication, overall quality of care, caregiver performance, caregiver morale, response to problems and recommendation of services.

“We are very pleased to be recognized as a quality leader in home care,” said Jeff Schweikert, owner of Home Care Assistance of St. Louis. “Our goal is to provide each client with the ultimate home care experience. In fact, it’s common for clients to come to Home Care Assistance after not being satisfied with the care they received from another home care agency. We are in a business where we care for people – clients and caregivers – and recognize that our employees are our most valuable asset. It’s satisfying to know that our efforts in making Home Care Assistance a great place to work do not go unnoticed by our staff.”

At Home Care Assistance, care plans are tailored to clients’ individual needs and preferences. Clients are also expertly matched with thoroughly trained, screened and conscientious caregivers. With a mission to change the way the world ages, Home Care Assistance helps seniors live well at home through innovative offerings such as their proprietary Balanced Care Method™, which emphasizes scientifically studied lifestyle behaviors of the longest living people on Earth, and the Cognitive Therapeutics Method™, an activities-based program designed to delay the onset and progression of cognitive decline.

Home Care Assistance of St. Louis is located at 12125 Woodcrest Executive Drive – Suite 210, St. Louis, Missouri, 63141.
