Home Care Assistance Expands Staff to Meet Growing Demand for In-Home Services in Sacramento

Home Care Assistance Sacramento welcomes two new staff members - Corrina Boerger as Client Care Coordinator and Melanie Free as Client Care Account Manager

(Sacramento, CA – May 13, 2014) - Home Care Assistance of Sacramento, a leading provider of in-home care for seniors, is pleased to welcome two new members to its staff to meet the growing demand for in-home services among seniors in Sacramento. Corrina Boerger, who comes to Home Care Assistance with over four years of experience in scheduling and care partner administration, will be the new Client Care Coordinator. Prior to entering the home care industry Corrina was a pre-school teacher, a job which requires compassion, dedication and patience, a skillset that will prove valuable at Home Care Assistance. Melanie Free will join the team as Client Care Account Manager. Melanie, who has a background in sales, marketing and management, will be responsible for client retention, client acquisition, network marketing and operations. In addition, she will be collaborating with other staff members to ensure client satisfaction and seamless operations internally. Melanie has lived in the Sacramento area for twenty years and has raised her family there.

“My favorite part of my job is when I am able to make that “perfect match” between a client and their care partner,” said Corrina Boerger, Client Care Coordinator. “I also love hearing the touching stories from the different clients. I am excited to be a part of a company that is really taking off and trying to change the way the world ages.”

Home Care Assistance provides hourly and live-in caregiving services to seniors, supporting their independence and providing respite and peace of mind for family members. Home Care Assistance care partners are expertly trained and follow a holistic approach to care, engaging clients in physical, mental and social activities as well as assisting with basic needs such as meal preparation, personal hygiene, bathing, medication reminders, transportation and more.

“I am an advocate for seniors and pleased to be able to work for a company that is committed to providing unparalleled services to our seniors in the community,” said Melanie Free, Client Care Account Manager.
