Home Care Assistance CEO Recognized as a 2015 Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year® Award Finalist

Home Care Assistance is proud to announce that Co-Founder and CEO Dr. Kathy Johnson has been selected as a finalist for her innovation and commitment to raising the standard of quality in-home care

(Palo Alto, CA – May 8, 2015) – Ernst & Young announced today that Dr. Kathy Johnson, Co-Founder and CEO of Home Care Assistance, has been named a finalist for the Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2015 Award in the Northern California region. The award recognizes entrepreneurs who demonstrate excellence and extraordinary success in areas such as innovation, financial performance and personal commitment to their businesses and communities. Johnson was selected as a finalist by a panel of independent judges. Award winners will be announced at a special gala event on Thursday, June 11th at the Fairmont in San Francisco.

“I am honored to be recognized as a finalist for this prestigious award”, said Kathy Johnson. “I co-founded Home Care Assistance 13 years ago with a mission to change the way the world ages. Our goal is not just to provide compassionate, seamless in-home care, but also to enhance quality of life for older adults with our innovative neurocognitive training. Special thanks goes to the remarkable employees of Home Care Assistance, who are the real winners of this award.”

Now in its 29th year, the program has expanded to recognize business leaders in more than 145 cities and in more than 60 countries throughout the world. Regional award winners are eligible for consideration for the EY Entrepreneur Of The Year National Program.

A leading provider of live-in care for seniors, Home Care Assistance is dedicated to providing exceptional home care services across the United States, Canada and Australia. Innovative programs such as the Balanced Care Method™ and the Cognitive Therapeutics Method™, an in-home activities program to promote brain health, are raising the standard of care worldwide.
