Centennial Home Care Company Hires Lisa Donnell as Client Care Manager

Lisa Donnell joins Home Care Assistance of Centennial as a Client Care Manager in a time of incredible growth

(Centennial, CO – June 16, 2015) Home Care Assistance of Centennial, a leading provider of in-home care for seniors in South Metro Denver, welcomes Lisa Donnell as their new Client Care Manager. As a Client Care Manager, Donnell's role will largely focus on company initiatives and programs such as Hospital to Home Care and the Cognitive Therapeutics Method™, an innovative approach to in-home dementia care. Donnell received her MS in Family Therapy and Organizational Development from California State University, and her BS from Texas Tech University. Prior to joining Home Care Assistance, she spent over ten years in the hospitality industry, and most recently she was a Case Manager for a Federal Intervention program.

"As the Client Care Manager, I enjoy interacting with our clients, making certain they are getting the very best possible care available," said Donnell. "It's the relationships I build with our clients, their families and the community that make my job so rewarding. It is an honor to be with a company that treats their clients like their own family. For this reason, I would recommend Home Care Assistance to anyone looking for in-home care for Mom or Dad."

Donnell's extensive professional experience in social work and hospitality, and her passion to serve families is well aligned with Home Care Assistance's mission, core beliefs and values.

"Lisa has made an immediate impact on our team," said Amy Lane, owner of Home Care Assistance of Centennial. "Her eagerness to learn, engaging personality and commitment to exceptional care make her a valuable asset to our clients and our company."

Donnell is joining Home Care Assistance in a stage of incredible growth and measured success. The company is in the midst of an aggressive international expansion campaign with plans to have 120 offices open by the end of 2016.
