Home Care Assistance of Bethesda Hires Joanna Navas as RN Supervisor

Joanna Navas, BSN, RN joins Home Care Assistance of Bethesda to serve the growing local senior population and their families

(Bethesda, MD—November 17, 2015) Home Care Assistance of Bethesda, the leading provider of in-home care for seniors in Maryland, welcomes Joanna Navas, BSN, RN as its new Registered Nurse Supervisor. Joanna brings 21 years of professional nursing experience to her role as RN Supervisor. Prior to Home Care Assistance, Joanna began her career in the hospital setting, and then worked in skilled home health care before moving into nonmedical home care fifteen years ago. She has worked as both a Clinical Director, opening and managing a successful private duty agency, as well as a Case Manager, working with seniors in compliance with their physicians' orders, locating helpful community resources and interacting with other healthcare professionals.

"As the RN Supervisor, I will leverage my experience in hospitals and home health care to provide the highest quality of care for our clients," said Navas. "Home Care Assistance of Bethesda has a reputation for providing premier care services for older adults, and I cannot wait to continue my career serving seniors in the home with this professional and experienced team."

As the leading provider of live-in care, Home Care Assistance staff is available 24/7 to provide experienced, trustworthy caregivers to help with all home care needs for seniors including transportation, healthy meal preparation, companionship, socialization, activities, personal care, medication reminders and care for advanced needs. Professional, compassionate caregivers encourage independence and engage clients in physical, mental and social activities, providing safety and comfort to each client and respite and peace of mind to their family members.
