Home Care Assistance Offers Conscious Aging Webinar for CEUs

Home Care Assistance will be hosting an educational webinar, "Conscious Aging: How Healthcare Professionals Can Guide Their Patients through the Aging Process," on Tuesday, July 19th at 1pm EST where social workers, nurses and case managers can earn one CEU

(Fort Lauderdale, FL – July 7, 2016) Home Care Assistance of Ft. Lauderdale, the premier provider of in-home care for seniors, is hosting an hour-long educational webinar, "Conscious Aging: How Healthcare Professionals Can Guide Their Patients through the Aging Process", for CE credit. Dr. Cassandra Vieten, President and CEO of the Institute of Noetic Sciences, will lead the webinar and explore aging in a more positive light and share techniques for social workers, nurses, and certified case managers. To register for the webinar, please visit http://homecareassistance.com/conscious-aging.

Noetic sciences is a multidisciplinary field that combines objective scientific tools with subjective inner knowing to study the full range of human experiences. The webinar will cover:

- Understanding of conscious aging and the noetic sciences
- Common stresses associated with aging
- Ways in which healthcare professionals can use noetic sciences to improve the quality of life of their patients
- Tasks of conscious aging and real-life applications

"The number of seniors over the age of 65 is expected to increase from 45 million to nearly 100 million in the next 40 plus years," said Manpreet Dhalla, Owner of Home Care Assistance of Ft. Lauderdale. "With this sharp increase, there will be a growing need for conscious aging. I believe this webinar will be very valuable to healthcare professionals who work with seniors to better serve this population in a meaningful way."

The CE credit is available for healthcare professionals licensed as Social Workers, Nurses, or Case Managers. Professionals who are not sure whether their state board will accept this CE credit should contact their respective organizations before registering.

In order to receive one hour of CE credit, healthcare professionals must attend the full webinar, complete an evaluation and score 80% or higher on the post-test. The post-test must be completed by 5pm Pacific/8pm Eastern, on Monday July 25th, 2016. Attendees who pass will receive their certificates via email.
